Cancellation policy:

After the registration form has been sent in, cancellations are not possible, so 100% of the agreed price must be paid. If the test drives are cancelled by the authorities at short notice due to the COVID-19 conditions, the contractual partner will be reimbursed all advance payments made to date and the registration form will be deemed void.

Covid 19

The implementation of the test day at the Red Bull Ring is subject to official approval! Any official Covid-19 safety concept of the authorities or the organizer must be followed. This includes (as an example, but not exhaustive!) the number of people per participating car (driver + assistant), the maximum number of people on the event site outdoors or in pits, catering guidelines, sanitary facilities, arrival and departure scenarios, etc.

General remark:

There is a limited amount of cars according track homologation. The organizer reserves the right to reject registrations due to the limited maximum number of participants. The first come - first serve principle applies, registrations are ranked according to their date.
